Dear Certified BSD Associate,

Congratulations on successfully completing the re-certification requirements for the BSD Associate Certification. Enclosed is your new BSDA certificate, suitable for framing. This is the official certificate, validating your accomplishment as a BSD Certified System Administrator.

Also enclosed is a BSDA reference card containing your BSDCG ID and new BSDA expiration date. Both individuals and employers can verify your BSDA status by sending an email request containing your BSDCG ID to chair@bsdcertification.org.

As a certified BSDA, you are eligible to join the BSDA Certified group on Linked-In at <http://www.linkedin.com/groups?home=&gid=1600807> which allows you to network with other BSDA certificants.

Your continued involvement in BSD certification keeps the value of your certification high, and helps to promote BSD systems worldwide.

Thanks again for your interest and participation in the BSD Associate exam.

Sincerely,

Dru Lavigne
President, BSD Certification Group Inc.
